The background of the entire image is a scenic view of Chicago. In the foreground, a yellow boat with "CHICAGO" written on its side is moving across a river, leaving a white wake. In the middle ground, a large black steel truss bridge spans the river. The background is filled with the Chicago skyline, including several prominent skyscrapers under a clear blue sky. In the top left corner, there is a logo consisting of several concentric, curved lines in shades of gold and brown, resembling a stylized sun or a wave.
